Ahoy All!

for the past couple of weeks I've been experimenting with a half hour online TV show called Arts NOW!

It's still in the BETA stage so join in now and make things happen!

I've been experimenting in the early evening on a Monday and broadcasting the half hour LIVE between 7pm and 8pm packing up at 9pm.

First show was at the Spa, Buffet Bar, the second we did at the Cask Inn Beer Garden and our third show we broadcast from Cielo's Coffee Bar...

The show's content is interweaved between spoken word poetry and vox pops with whoever is there.

Content we're always looking for is.....

Creative Musicians any genre but must be own originals

Creative Artists any medium, we can pre record you at the easle/computer/glass blowing etc.. and then interview you live....

Creative Poetry any genre but will be spoken Live either by the writer or by our resident spoken word poet.

Visual artists any genre, installation, graphic or moving image can either bring a media file for use to show or create it live on the show....

Theatre types....anyone from the realms of the stage.....interview and review segment..

I'll post up a running order on Thursday of those who will be contributing to next Monday's LIVE Arts NOW! broadcast, so if you want to be included or wish to suggest someone or something to add to the content then please do so NOW! :D

Art....when do we want it?.....we want it NOW!
